The order is silent as to the rates of TA. be drawn by him. As the pay on appointment is specified it is a point for orders.

Yes. I think a copy of the Govt order should be furnished to Mr R. Ranganadan. As Mr Ranganadan in her capacity as Asst to the Resr has to travel about and as the place is a responsible one — whatever be the Rs. that may eventually be given to him — the appointment should, I think, be specified in the Gazette.

Yes please but why not.

As to coming to the question of TA. as the appointment carries with it an amount of touring into villages it is for consideration whether from the Rates of the Asst to the Resr be taken as a basis — why the Rates should not be given TA. as the rates fixed for Asst Tahsildar — Amildar — Division officer &c. &c. at the rates fixed for Asst

Maybe done. Being a foreigner travelling may be necessary in Govt interest. State specially.
